- IJET welcomes original research papers in any of the subjects-sciences as well as social sciences related to educational technology.
- Articles must be not contain more than 4,000 words, including notes and references. Longer articles will not be considered and processed.
- Articles should be accompanied by an abstract of a maximum of 150-200 words, keywords (five) an introductory paragraph and subheads.

Review articles

- Articles must be not contain more than 6,000 words.
- Cited references should be limited to about 100 in number.
- These articles are expected to survey and discuss current developments in a field
- These should be focused and organized.

Opinion

- These articles should not contain more than 1200 words.
- They are expected to show present views on issues related to Educational Technology (ET) and Information and Communication Technology (ICT).

Communications (Short articles)

- These articles should not exceed 2000 words.
- They should contain important new findings that are of fairly broad interest.
- They should include a brief abstract and an introductory paragraph.
- Text should NOT be categorized under subheads.

Book Reviews

- IJET accepts book reviews not exceeding 1,500 words.

- The selection of reviews will be done on the basis of the relevance of the book with the theme of the journal.
- Reviews should be proper and must not merely 'list' brief descriptions of the contents of a book.

Correspondence

- These should not exceed 600 words.
- These include letters that are of general interest to researchers or technical comments, including those on articles or communications published in IJET within the previous six months.
- Short letters are preferred.
- Letters may be reviewed and edited as per the guidelines of the institution and IJET.

General Guidelines

- Contributions should be sent by email (typed and double-spaced).
- Papers with immediate relevance for policy would be considered for early publication. Please note that this is a matter of editorial judgment.
- Articles should be accompanied by an abstract of a maximum of 150-200 words, keywords, an introductory paragraph and subheads.
- Authors need to mention the nature of article at the top of the manuscript (whether it is a research article, review article or opinion, etc.)
- Authors are requested to list five to six keywords for their articles that can best represent the article.
- Graphs and charts need to be prepared in MS Office (Word/Excel) and not in jpeg or other formats.
- The pages should be numbered consecutively, starting with the title page and through the text, reference list, tables and figure legends.
- The order in which manuscripts are to be prepared is: Title page, abstract, key words, text, acknowledgements, references, tables, figure legends (on separate page preceding the first figure), figures (the figures should be labelled).
- The title page should contain Title, Authors, Affiliations, and Corresponding author and address.
- Writers are requested to provide full details for correspondence: postal address, phone numbers and email address.
- Acknowledgements should be as brief as possible.
- Papers should not have been simultaneously submitted for publication to another journal or newspaper. If the paper has appeared earlier in a different version, we would appreciate a copy of this along with the submitted paper.
- Receipt of articles will be immediately acknowledged by email.
- Effort is taken to complete early processing of the papers we receive.
- IJET requests writers not to send revised versions of their earlier contributions based on stylistic changes/additions, deletions of references, minor changes, etc. as this poses challenges in processing and unnecessary delaying of the work. Revised versions will not be processed. When there are major developments in the field of study after the first submission, authors can send a revised version.

Referencing Style

Authors are expected to follow the reference style sheet (as mentioned separately) while writing their manuscripts. This will help in speedy processing of the manuscripts. Authors are expected to provide endnotes for references instead of footnotes.
